Asset #35

Resistance Skills

With school starting, it's even more important to help your children avoid negative peer pressure and avoid dangerous situations. To do so:

- 1) Encourage your children to express their feelings, values and beliefs at home. Allow them to disagree with you.*
- 2) Talk with your child about different ways to resist. Examples: Walk away from the situation; calmly say no; say how you feel; use humor; stick up for yourself; ignore the person or situation. Which does your child like best? Why?*
- 3) Role play with your child times when resistance skills are necessary. Examples: being pressured to have sex, drink alcohol or use drugs, being asked to ride in a car with a person who has been drinking alcohol; being called a coward because you won't shoplift.*
- 4) Find out who your children's friends are. Get to know them.*
- 5) Talk with your children about*

peer pressure. Share stories from your own childhood and teen years.

6) Teach your kids the difference between assertiveness, aggression and passivity. Assertiveness is positive and affirming; aggression is negative and demanding; passivity makes one vulnerable. Role-play all three kinds of behaviors with your children. Teach them assertiveness skills.

Service Opportunities

Rippy Literacy Center

The Rippy Literacy Center is already preparing for its Green Eggs and Ham Extravaganza in January 2006. They plan to have a silent auction in conjunction with this event to help generate funds for the center.

They will be auctioning quality hand made crafts, etc. Start creating your donation now. Some suggestions are: quilts, paintings, woodwork, unique dolls or toys, special hand crafted items of all varieties. Use your talent to benefit others. Call 407-1025 or drop off your donations at the Rippy Literacy Center at 120 N. Center. (Donations will be accepted starting in November 2005.)

Parents:

The Junior Highs in Lehi are seeking volunteers to come and help in classrooms, hallways, lunchrooms, etc. It is a proven fact that the presence of parents in the school has a calming effect on the students.

Make Arts & Craft Materials

Make arts and craft materials for potentially abused children for the Family Support and Treatment Center. Dye macaroni noodles and provide string to make necklaces and bracelets, make home-made play dough and put together other crafts which the children could make. To volunteer, contact Lexey at 229-1181.

Bring the Standards to Utah

The Lehi City Family Week committee is still looking for donations to bring the Standards to Utah. The Nashville, Tenn. Group of five talented brothers will be the grand opening act of Sunday, November 20. They sing, dance and create their own instrumentation. To make donations, please contact Family Week chair Jill McKenzie at jillmac@excite.com or 472-4744.

Giant Pumpkin Contest

Come join us to kick off the Giant Pumpkin Harvest Event at Albertsons in mid-October! For more information, contact Linda Turner at 768-1102.

Halloween Party

The Halloween Party is October 31 at the Legacy Center. Tickets can be purchased in advance at the Legacy Center Registration office. The advance price is $2.50 per child (parents are free) or $10 per family. You may also pay at the door on Halloween night for $3.00 per child or $12 per family. For more information, call the Legacy Center at 768-7124. There is also a Halloween Parade down Main Street and “trick or treat” at Hutch’s TV & Appliance.

Yard-of-the-Month

The August “yard of the month” recipients were Gene and Robyn Peterson of 2002 W. 1500 N. The Peterson’s have a beautiful back yard with a fun koi pond, a lovely gazebo and a stone walk way going around the outer perimeter.

NOTE: We are looking for the most colorful yard with fall colors for the last yard of the month award in September. Nominations should be made to Rose at 768-1222.
